JULY 2018 • VOLUME 3 • ISSUE 7

Canada Day in Hastings is always a fun filled day! If you have young children (or if you're just interested in the Trent Hills Fire Department) you can visit the Hastings Station from 10 am until 2 pm to have tons of fun climbing in and around the trucks, and asking our local heroes questions about their volunteer job. Sparky usually makes an appearance and there's always hotdogs!

From there you can walk, bike or drive down the street to our beautiful waterfront park for live music, food, vendors and more (from 2 pm to dusk). Our Legion will be open all day with beef on a bun, music, and ice cold beer! Don't forget to enter your painted rock into the rock painting contest (see 'Hastings Rocks Ontario' on Facebook, for more details) between 10 and noon and watch our parade at 4 pm.

Catch the fireworks show at dusk, too! Never been? Set up your chair or blanket along the north shoreline (by the gazebo) and brace yourself for the best fireworks display you will ever see!
